

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

JOSEPH T. TOY, et al.,

Plaintiffs,
Defendants.

Case No. 2:11-cv-00984-PMP-PAL

CLARK COUNTY, et al.

ORDER AND REPORT OF FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATION

Plaintiffs Joseph Toy and Doris Toy are proceeding in this action pro se. Plaintiff Joseph Toy filed an Application to Proceed In Forma Pauperis (Dkt. #1). The undersigned reviewed the Application and found that although it appeared Joseph Toy qualified to proceed in forma pauperis, the court had no information concerning the co-Plaintiff, Doris Toy. The court allowed Ms. Toy thirty days to file an Application or for the Plaintiffs to pay the filing fee. Plaintiff Doris Toy has not filed complied or requested an extension of time or taken any other action to prosecute this case. Plaintiff Doris Toy was warned that failure to comply with the screening order would result in a recommendation to the District Judge that this case be dismissed as to her.

With regard to Plaintiff Joseph Toy, the court has reviewed his Application to Proceed In Forma Pauperis (Dkt. #1) which shows an inability to prepay fees and costs or give security for them. Plaintiff Joseph Toy's request to proceed in forma pauperis will be granted pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a). The court will now review Plaintiff's complaint.

II. Screening the Complaint

Upon granting a request to proceed in forma pauperis, a court must additionally screen a complaint pursuant to § 1915(a). Federal courts are given the authority to dismiss a case if the action is legally “frivolous or malicious,” fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, or seeks

1 monetary relief from a defendant who is immune from such relief. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2). When a 2 court dismisses a complaint under § 1915(a), the plaintiff should be given leave to amend the complaint
 3 with directions as to curing its deficiencies, unless it is clear from the face of the complaint that the 4 deficiencies could not be cured by amendment. See Cato v. United States, 70 F.3d 1103, 1106 (9th Cir.
 5 1995).

6 Rule 12(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure provides for dismissal of a complaint for 7 failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. Review under Rule 12(b)(6) is essentially a 8 ruling on a question of law. See Chappel v. Laboratory Corp. of America, 232 F.3d 719, 723 (9th Cir.
 9 2000). A properly pled complaint must provide a short and plain statement of the claim showing that 10 the pleader is entitled to relief.” Fed.R.Civ.P. 8(a)(2); Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 11 555 (2007). Although Rule 8 does not require detailed factual allegations, it demands “more than labels 12 and conclusions” or a “formulaic recitation of the elements of a cause of action.” Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 129
 13 S.Ct. 1937, 1949 (2009) (citing Papasan v. Allain, 478 U.S. 265, 286 (1986)). The court must accept as 14 true all well-pled factual allegations contained in the complaint, but the same requirement does not 15 apply to legal conclusions. Iqbal, 129 S.Ct. at 1950. Mere recitals of the elements of a cause of action, 16 supported only by conclusory allegations, do not suffice. Id. at 1949. Secondly, where the claims in the 17 complaint have not crossed the line from plausible to conceivable, the complaint should be dismissed.
 18 Twombly, 550 U.S. at 570.

19 Plaintiff’s Complaint attempts to state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, alleging a violation of 20 his right to due process under the Fourteenth Amendment. To state a claim under section 1983, a 21 plaintiff must allege that a right secured by the Constitution has been violated, and the deprivation was 22 committed by a person acting under color of state law.” West v. Atkins, 487 U.S. 42 (1988) (citation 23 omitted). States and state officers sued in their official capacity are not “persons” for the purposes of a 24 section 1983 action, and generally, they may not be sued under the statute. Will v. Mich. Dept. of State
 25 Police, 491 U.S. 58, 71 (1989).

26 Initially, the court notes that many of the Defendants are not state actors, including Medwest
 27 Ambulance Company, Pair of Dice Trailer Park owner and employees, North Vista Hospital, or Sunrise
 28 Hospital, and Plaintiff cannot state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 against these Defendants.

1 Furthermore, Plaintiff has not made any factual allegations against Medwest Ambulance Company,
2 North Vista Hospital, or Sunrise Hospital.

3 Plaintiff's Complaint alleges that on or about June 14, 2009, North Las Vegas Police officers
4 took him and his mother, Doris Toy, away by ambulance to the North Vista Hospital and later
5 transferred him to the Rawson-Neal Psychiatric Hospital "for unknown reasons." He states that he was 6 kept a prisoner in the psychiatric hospital between June 14, 2009, and August 4, 2009, for unknown 7 reasons and without due process of law.

8 Plaintiff also asserts that when police arrested him on June 14, 2009, Doris Toy's trailer was 9 searched without a warrant and the police stole "several items" after they would not permit him to close 10 and lock the trailer door before he was taken away. Additionally, Plaintiff asserts the management of 11 the Pair of Dice Trailer Park entered the trailer while he and Ms. Toy were in the hospital. He asserts 12 management put a lock on the trailer that damaged the doorway and prevented the trailer from being 13 removed from the trailer park. Management also allowed two individuals into Ms. Toy's trailer without 14 her permission or Plaintiff's permission to steal things inside the trailer. Plaintiff also states that he was 15 harassed "by the state of New Jersey and Camden County, Atlantic County, and Brigantine."

16 "Procedural due process provides 'a guarantee of fair procedure in connection with any 17 deprivation of life, liberty, or property' by the government.'" Denney v. Drug Enforcement Admin., 508 18 F.Supp.2d 815, 833 (E.D.Cal. 2007) (citing Collins v. City of Harker Heights, 503 U.S. 115 (1992)). In 19 order to state a claim for a violation of Plaintiff's due process rights, he must show that he has a 20 protected liberty interest under the Due Process Clause and that he was deprived of his liberty without 21 receiving the process that he was constitutionally due. See generally Hamdi v. Rumsfeld, 542 U.S. 507, 22 530 (2004). Here, Plaintiff has shown that he was deprived of his liberty between June 14, 2009, and 23 August 2, 2009, when he was involuntarily held at North Vista Hospital and Rawson-Neal Psychiatric 24 Hospital. However, Plaintiff's claim fails because it appears, based on the paperwork he has attached to 25 his complaint, that he received due process. Specifically, he has attached paperwork showing a hearing
26 was held concerning his involuntary commitment on June 24, 2009, in compliance with Nevada's
27 procedure for involuntary commitment. Thus, Plaintiff's Complaint does not state a claim for a 28 violation of his due process rights.

1 Plaintiff may also be attempting to state a claim for violation of his Fourth Amendment rights
2 concerning the police officer's warrantless entry into the trailer. As a general matter, the Fourth
3 Amendment protects “[t]he right of people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, 4 against unreasonable search and seizure.” U.S. Const. Amend. IV. The Supreme Court has held that 5 the “capacity to claim the protection of the Fourth Amendment depends . . . upon whether the person
6 who claims the protection of the Amendment has a legitimate expectation of privacy in the invaded 7 place.” Minnesota v. Olson, 495 U.S. 91, 95 (1990) (citing Katz v. United States, 389 U.S. 347 (1967);
8 Rakas v. Illinois, 439 U.S. 128, 143 (1978)). In order to have “standing” to contest the legality of a 9 search or seizure, a defendant must establish that he had a subjective expectation of privacy in the place
10 searched, an expectation society accepts as objectively reasonable. Minnesota v. Carter, 525 U.S. 83, 11 87-88 (1998) (citing Rakas, 439 U.S. at 143-44 & n.12). Here, Plaintiff alleges that the trailer belongs 12 to his mother, and he does not allege that he lives in the trailer or has any other expectation of privacy
13 there. Plaintiff has not stated a claim for violation of his Fourth Amendment rights.

14 With regard to Plaintiff's claims against the Pair of Dice Trailer Park owner and employees, 15 Plaintiff has not stated any federal claim. Any claim for theft or conversion arises under state law, and 16 without a federal claim, the court cannot exercise ancillary jurisdiction over the state law claims.

17 With regard to Plaintiff's claims against the State of Nevada, Clark County, Southern Nevada
18 Mental Health Services, Nevada District Court, the State of New Jersey, Atlantic County, and Camden
19 County, Plaintiff not alleged facts which set forth a cognizable claim.

20 Accordingly,

21 IT IS ORDERED:

22 1. Plaintiff Joseph Toy's request to proceed in forma pauperis is GRANTED. He shall not 23 be required to pay the filing fee of three hundred fifty dollars ($350.00).

24 2. Plaintiff is permitted to maintain this action to conclusion without the necessity of 25 prepayment of any additional fees or costs or the giving of a security therefor. This 26 Order granting leave to proceed in forma pauperis shall not extend to the issuance of 27 subpoenas at government expense.

28 3. The Clerk of the Court shall file the Complaint.

1 4. The Complaint is DISMISSED for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be 2 granted, with leave to amend. Plaintiff will have thirty days from the date that this Order
3 is entered to file his Amended Complaint, if he believes he can correct the noted 4 deficiencies. If Plaintiff chooses to amend the complaint, Plaintiff is informed that the 5 Court cannot refer to a prior pleading (i.e., his* original complaint) in order to make the 6 amended complaint complete. This is because, as a general rule, an amended complaint
7 supersedes the original complaint. See Loux v. Rhay, 375 F.2d 55, 57 (9th Cir. 1967).
8 Local Rule 15-1 requires that an amended complaint be complete in itself without 9 reference to any prior pleading. Once a plaintiff files an amended complaint, the original 10 complaint no longer serves any function in the case. Therefore, in an amended 11 complaint, as in an original complaint, each claim and the involvement of each 12 defendant must be sufficiently alleged. Failure to comply with this Order will result in 13 the dismissal of this case, without prejudice.

14 IT IS RECOMMENDED that the Complaint be DISMISSED as to Doris Toy for her failure to 15 comply with the court's Order and failure to file an Application to Proceed In Forma Pauperis.

16 Dated this 26th day of September, 2011.

20 UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

21 NOTICE

22 These findings and recommendations are submitted to the United States District Judge assigned 23 to the case, pursuant to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). Within fourteen days after being 24 served with these findings and recommendations, any party may file written objections with the court.
25 Pursuant to Local Rule of Practice (LR) IB 3-2(a), any party wishing to object to the findings and 26 recommendations of a magistrate judge shall file and serve specific written objections together with 27 points and authorities in support of those objections, within fourteen days of the date of service of the 28

1 findings and recommendations. The document should be captioned “Objections to Magistrate Judge’s 2 Findings and Recommendations.” The parties are advised that failure to file objections within the 3 specified time may waive the right to appeal the District Court’s Order. Martinez v. Ylst, 951 F.2d 1153
4 (9th Cir. 1991). The points and authorities filed in support of the specific written objections are subject
5 to the page limitations found in LR 7-4.
